NOTE: Open Arms Christian Ministries is looking for a Christian couple to join our amazing team as house parents for an all-female home (Miriam Home). This couple will be trained in the Teaching Family Model (TFM) so they can make a difference in the lives of abused, neglected and orphaned young ladies ages eight through high school. We are focused on providing a loving family model that places importance on education, work, family and faith as each girl prepares to live independent of Social Services. OACM works with Social Services on a plan to obtain reunification, permanency, adoption or emancipation. OACM house parents will live in a 10,000 square foot home that includes an apartment for them with three bedrooms, living room, dining room, kitchen and bath. The apartment, utilities, food, health and dental insurance, a 15-passenger van with insurance and gas are included as part of the compensation package. This position requires high energy, a sense of humor, flexibility, ability to de-escalate a child and excellent organizational skills to meet the demands of a large family. Responsibilities include: teaching, social skills, implementing treatment plans, coordinating with various professionals on behalf of youth, providing family style atmosphere, advocating for adolescents, and managing a home budget. The houseparent position is supported by other shift workers to meet the required 24-hour awake staff for licensing, program director, case managers and therapist. The house parents will work closely with the local school system for most of the girls or with the on-grounds teachers at Turning Point Education Center. All interested couples can contact us through our website, by phone, or by e-mail.

COLORADO

MOUNTAINVIEW, CO, Mountainview Christian Church

POSITION: Director of Congregational Care

DATE: 2/26/15

CONGREGATION SIZE: 700

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS: College graduate; may continue education

EXPERIENCE SOUGHT: 5-7 years

SEND RESUME TO: <http://mountainview.recruiterbox.com/jobs/fk09ue>

WEB: www.mountainviewfamily.org

NOTE: Mountainview is a contemporary, non-denominational church (Christian Church/Churches of Christ) of approximately 700 attenders located in Highlands Ranch, CO, a suburb of Denver. We are seeking to add a Director of Congregational Care.

POSITION OVERVIEW

The Director of Congregational Care will Glorify God by providing timely and appropriate care, will help others Grow in Jesus by pointing them back to him, and will enable the church to Go into the World by helping people feel connected, loved, and equipped. He will share our vision of starting churches and campuses and will be a key contributor to our congregational health and growth. He will do so utilizing a team-based approach, recognizing that they are to be equippers and not simply doers (Ephesians 4:11-12).

As we live in a large and diverse community, this role demands the ability to pastorally care for people from a wide range of personal, political, and theological perspectives.

MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develop a system to proactively connect with Mountainview members and attenders in order to best understand, serve, and resource our community's needs.
- Develop teams, leaders, and systems to provide effective congregational care.
- Serve as the primary contact for all congregational care needs.
- Maintain a presence at all weekend services.
- Assist with pastoral counseling needs as needed.

KEY ROLES

Coach: As a coach, we would expect this person to develop leaders and teams by mentoring, training, and resourcing them in the area of congregational care.

- Share leadership responsibilities for Stephen Ministry with volunteer team.
- Organize people to provide meals for members and attenders as needed.
- Develop a team and system for responding to all on-call pastoral requests and emergencies including, but not limited to, prayer requests, hospital visitations, shut-ins, funerals, and crisis events, etc.
- Work with our prayer ministry team to respond to prayer needs.

Catalyst: As a catalyst, we would expect this person to be creating and improving ways for people to be cared for and connected to the body.

- Stay current with congregational care trends and strategies.
- Network with outside ministry staff.
- Must have a commitment to ongoing growth and learning.
- Must be comfortable with change and experimentation.

Guide: As a guide, we would expect this person to develop a congregational care plan and key performance measures to ensure that we are meeting our objectives.

- Create a written, monthly summary of topics/themes that arise from on-call activity.
- Develop a system to proactively contact all Mountainview members and regular attenders on an annual basis.
- Develop and implement a system of follow up for inactive attenders.
- Develop a plan for congregational care across multiple campuses.

Administrator: As an administrator, we would expect this person to manage volunteer teams and to coordinate well across all ministries.

- Collaborate with existing ministries to help them improve congregational care within their ministry areas.
- Manage the congregational care budget and planning process.
- Oversee our Helpline (benevolence) ministry.
- Lead the scheduling, programming, and overall facilitation of baptism services.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE

This position requires a minimum of 5-7 years' experience as a staff member in a ministry leadership capacity. Possession of a Bachelor's Degree in Biblical studies or related field is required. (Ministry experience may be substituted.) The successful individual will be a strong leader with a solid work ethic and ability to administrate as a department head.

THEOLOGICAL

This person must be in agreement with our statement of faith. You can view our entire statement online at www.mountainviewfamily.org/im-new/what-we-believe.

NOTE: The Executive Pastor of Cumberland Community Church (CCC) is responsible for overseeing the accomplishment of the church's mission and vision while leading the staff in the attainment of its departmental and corporate goals. The Executive Pastor will report to the Lead Pastor and superintend the areas of administration, business and finance, human resource compliance, strategic planning, communication, leadership development, facilities, the assimilation and belonging process of members and overall ministry operations. The Executive Pastor will be responsible for professionalism and excellence at CCC for the sake of people both inside and outside our walls. The Executive Pastor will implement details while attaching them to loftier concepts like grace, eternity and EPIC Gospel initiatives. Essential Job Functions: 1. Support the Lead Pastor in the accomplishment of the church's mission and vision through ministry effectiveness, evaluation, discernment, decision-making, trouble-shooting, and strategic planning. 2. Conduct weekly staff meetings and lead the CCC staff in the establishment and ongoing functioning of ministries that effectively accomplish the overall mission and vision of the church in a manner that is fiscally responsible. 3. Facilitate annual evaluations of ministry effectiveness with the Lead Pastor at elder and staff retreats. This includes a review of the church's mission, vision, core values, programs and procedures. Retreats will also focus on the development of key objectives, tactics, and goals. 4. Develop and effectively communicate financial reports and economic trends to the elders monthly, to the staff quarterly, and to the church as needed. This includes ensuring that the church meets its critical financial objectives such as established cash reserve levels. 5. Determine when staff positions need to be added, altered, or dismissed. This also includes developing job descriptions and compensation packages for all non-pastoral staff positions. Oversight will involve the actual interviewing, hiring, reviewing, and terminating of all non-pastoral staff based on the church's governance matrix. 6. Help the staff to create annual operating budgets for their departments while also providing personal accountability, regular budget updates, and the communication of future trends in giving and spending. 7. Lead the church's building or renovation programs, which may include fundraising ideas and implementation, banking correspondence, master planning, design and architecture, contractor selection, and construction. Education, Experience, and Qualities: 1. This position requires several years of experience as a senior leader in a corporate business environment, and/or several years experience as an Executive Pastor in a thriving church. This person must articulate a desire and calling for the position. 2. Possession of a Bachelor's degree is required. An undergraduate or graduate Biblical studies degree is preferred but not required. 3. This individual must have a proven track record of discernment, servant-hearted leadership, humility, wisdom, and personal integrity. If married, this person must have a healthy marriage and family based on the qualities of a pastor/elder found in I Timothy 3:1-7. 4. This individual must be content not being the senior leader of the church. The Executive Pastor must love second place. This person is not a successor to the Lead pastor, but gladly submits to the vision and leadership of the Lead Pastor. Because this person will report to and work closely with the Lead Pastor, it is necessary that a good working and relational chemistry develop between the two of them. 5. In addition to possessing sound business acumen, this person must have a genuine shepherd's heart and experience in ministering effectively across all gender, age, race, and social demographics. 6. This person should be knowledgeable and able to function in the latest modes of technology. This individual should also possess excellent communication skills and the ability to confront people lovingly, wisely, and humbly. Due to exposure to sensitive information, the Executive Pastor must not be given to gossip. 7. This person must have the proven capacity to manage individuals and teams successfully while operating effectively in the spiritual gifts of administration and leadership. The Executive Pastor must be given to strategic planning and strategic foresight so as to help lead the church to its productive and relevant future. 8. This individual must have a sound, personal financial portfolio that is marked by consistent giving to the Church, and without fail, this person should have a vibrant, established, and growing relationship with Jesus Christ. Compensation: Competitive salary based on qualifications and experience. Health and dental insurance and a vacation allowance are provided. Please send your resume, video teaching files, and any other pertinent information to: carole@cumberlandchurch.org About CCC: CCC is a growing community of 1,000 people. We sit on Atlanta's edge of the I-285 perimeter. God has shaped us into a wonderfully diverse community striving to be a real part of the community we are in. Four to five times a year, we close down Sunday mornings so that we can BE the church and serve our community in many different ways. For more information, please visit www.cumberlandchurch.org. Other benefits include health, dental, vacation and a 401K plan.

NOTE: Wildwood Christian Church seeks to connect our distracted community to a life focused on Jesus. We are a 55 year old church, averaging 260 people in two services on Sunday morning. Our Senior Minister, Doug Vernon, has been leading us for seven years. We have just journeyed through a two-year process to clarify the unique vision God has for us. The Elders at WCC are seeking to fill our staff with Godly men & women who can help us continue our journey of helping our community discover a "life in focus". WCC is located in Wildwood, MO, a growing West County suburb of St. Louis. Within a 5.1 mile radius of our church building there is a population of just under 93,000 people. The Wildwood community as a whole has a "very traditional" family structure and is well educated with 53% of adults over the age of 25 having a college degree. We are looking for a Connections Minister to provide leadership in two key areas. Area #1 - connecting our congregation into small groups. We have a strong history of small group participation, involving approximately 40% of the adults regularly attending our church. We are looking for a person passionate about the value of small groups to help us take the next step in growing this critical ministry in our church. Area #2 - connecting our congregation into effective ministry and service. Over the past year and a half, a team has been working on creating a pathway to transition those just sitting in the seats to discovering effective ministry for Jesus. We are looking for a person enthused about helping us further this work and take these critical ministries to the next level. We are looking for a candidate with a college degree, experience in working with small groups, and excellent people skills. This person also needs good organizational and planning skills. Above all, they must have a growing relationship with Jesus. If you feel this is a fit for you please e-mail your resume to the above e-mail address and put "Application for Connection Minister" as the subject line.
